

Introducing Clarion

Delivering Clear Business Insight for Attorneys

“Having this available allows us to know which experts to bring in to assist with a deal and alert us to possible problem areas. It helps identify material relationships and locate agreements and other documents and disclosures.”

Attorney,
Private Equity
and Venture Capital
Practice Group

Clarion by Wolters Kluwer is a due diligence and client advisement tool that provides attorneys with instant access to critical business information.

Delivers Clarity in Every Detail

Powered by FactSet, Clarion supports the attorney’s most important activities:

M&A Due Diligence: Jumpstart the due diligence process with vital insight into revenue sources, customers, suppliers, competitors, and partners. Quickly find the information you need to prepare due diligence requests and identify material filings, contracts, and agreements that could impact the deal. Clarion’s deep business relationship data ensures an efficient and complete assessment of all risks and relationships of the merger target.

Strategic Advisement: Identify potential business opportunities, partnerships, and strategic alliances for your clients, enhancing your role as a strategic advisor.

Get the Insight You Need in Minutes, Not Hours

With the simple, intuitive dashboard, point-and-click interface, and a rapid download feature, the information you need is instantly accessible. Clarion by Wolters Kluwer fully empowers you to take greater control of business-related research with minimal training and time commitment.

Ascertain the Most Important Business Relationships

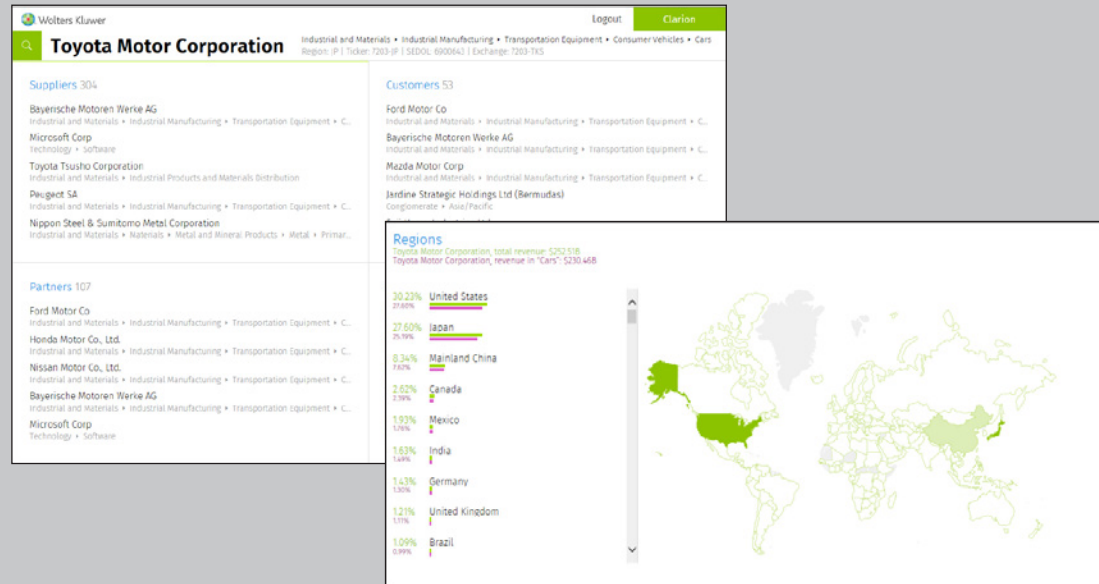

Clarion instantly presents a company’s business relationships in an easy to understand dashboard designed for legal practice:

- Industry Sectors (including all subsectors)
- Revenue by Country
- Customers
- Competitors
- Partners
- Suppliers

Clarion will boost your productivity

Quickly identify customers, suppliers, partners, and competitors

Surface potential country business risks on a global basis

Jumpstart the Due Diligence Process

- Quickly prepare lists of all customers, suppliers, competitors, partners, and country revenues for a potential target
- Gain insights to assemble the due diligence team
- Prepare due diligence requests
- Prioritize documents based on disclosure relevance
- Identify potential sources of critical contracts, partnerships, and operating agreements.

Uncover Risks and Material Disclosure Matters

- Streamline the process of analyzing revenue by country, enabling you to see where a firm's revenues are derived to better assess market, geographical, and political risk on a global scale.
- Quickly uncover the potential risks and opportunities facing clients by revealing all customer and supplier relationships.
- Highlight potential antitrust issues by revealing market overlap in key industries and geographies.
- Identify competitors and peer firms to aid in disclosures and to help identify precedent documents

Advise Clients on Business Transactions and Growth Opportunities

- Assist your client in identifying potential acquisition targets or locating possible buyers, increasing leverage in M&A negotiations and more directly informing key decision-making.
- Enhance current client relations and grow your advisement services by establishing deeper involvement in your client's business.

For more information, contact your Wolters Kluwer account representative or call 1-800-638-8437