

Get More Done With One- Introducing the New RBsourceFilings®

The completely re-designed RBsourceFilings is a comprehensive SEC research and workflow tool that intelligently integrates the key content you need to boost your productivity and ensure better legal practice.

A New Way to do SEC Law and Filings-Related Research

With integrated statutory authority, SEC Guidance, EDGAR Filings, Law Firm Memos, Private Placements, SEC No-Action Letters, and SEC Comment Letters, RBsourceFilings gives securities practitioners a complete view of the regulatory disclosure landscape, enabling them to better assess and monitor policies, directives, and company disclosures in filings research and preparation.

A Complete Regulatory and SEC Filings Research Solution

RBsourceFilings aligns with the practitioner workflow and integrates disparate components of securities law and filings research into an intuitive, streamlined process. Through intelligent content integration and editorially created topic relationships, the system surfaces both SEC Filings and the legal and regulatory materials vital to understanding those filings. Using powerful search and post search filters, practitioners can quickly find the targeted results they need. The new Securities Law tab organizes the Rules and Regulations according to their enabling Statutes. For specific SEC filings research tasks, practitioners can now use the new SEC Filings tab to quickly locate exemplar filings by section, compare filings, and locate hard to find contracts and agreements.

A Leader in Serving Securities Practitioners

With our established editorial expertise in securities regulatory content since 1933, Wolters Kluwer is a trusted leader for corporations, law firms, financial services firms, government regulators and policy-makers—from the renowned Securities Act Handbook (Red Book) to RBsource to the new RBsourceFilings.
