Federal	Under the Public Health Emergency Leave - Section 3102 program: An employee who is eligible for leave under the Family and Medical Leave Act is entitled to a total of 12 workweeks of leave during any 12-month period during the period beginning on the date the Emergency Family and Medical Leave Expansion Act takes effect, and ending on December 31, 2020, because of a qualifying need related to a public health emergency. Leave under this provision must be paid leave. The term "qualifying need related to a public health emergency" means the employee is unable to work (or telework) due to a need for leave to care for the son or daughter under 18 years of age of such employee if the school or place of care has been closed, or the child care provider of such son or daughter is unavailable, due to a public health emergency. A "public health emergency" is an emergency with respect to COVID-19 declared by a Federal, State, or local authority. An "eligible employee" is an employee who has been employed for at least 30 calendar days by the employer. The first 10 days of leave may be unpaid. Paid leave is to be calculated based on an amount that is not less than two-thirds of an employee's regular rate of pay and would otherwise be normally scheduled to work. An employer shall not be required to pay more than $200 per day and $10,000 in the aggregate for each employee for paid leave. Under the "Paid Sick Time - Section 5102" program: An employer shall provide to each employee employed by the employer paid sick time to the extent that the employee is unable to work (or telework) due to a need for leave because: The employee is subject to a Federal, State, or local quarantine or isolation order; The employee has been advised by a health care provider to self-quarantine; The employee is experiencing symptoms of COVID-19 and seeking a medical diagnosis; The employee is caring for an individual who is subject to quarantine or isolation order or has been advised to self-quarantine; The employee is caring for his or her son or daughter if the school or place of care of the son or daughter has been closed, or the child care provider of such son or daughter is unavailable, due to COVID-19 precautions; or The employee is experiencing any other substantially similar condition specified by the Secretary of Health and Human Services in consultation with the	Public Health Emergency Leave - Section 3102: Paid Sick Time - Section 5102	4/1/2020
