

Are your students
practice-ready or do
they still need practice?

Ensure your students are ready for practice with the
Academic Practice Tools from Wolters Kluwer

Many libraries offer students the resources that they need to enhance their knowledge of the law, but how are you preparing them for practice? Firms and corporate legal departments are demanding more of their new hires, expecting them to be more agile, efficient and skilled in the practice of law. You need to offer the right tools that can prepare your students for the growing demands of legal practice.

The Academic Practice Tools from Wolters Kluwer provides your students with the resources they need to confidently practice in any job they obtain after law school. Our workflow solutions and tools provide content not found in your standard law school books. Students can logon and access:

- WK exclusive multi- jurisdictional charts, or Smart Charts,
- Standard forms and templates often used in the practice of law,
- News and regulatory updates specific by practice area, and
- Archives of primary source content.

Academic Practice Tools from Wolters Kluwer

The Academic Practice Tools include:

Securities Law

RBsourceFilings— With integrated statutory authority, SEC Guidance, public company disclosure information, and SEC Staff Comment Letters, RBsourceFilings gives law students a complete view of the regulatory disclosure landscape, enabling them to better assess and monitor policies, derivatives, and company disclosures.

IP Law

WK Trademark Navigator— A one-stop solution for a multifaceted trademark prosecution practice including guidance from the experts on trademark law, comparison charts, news, updates and hundreds of forms, documents and checklists. Your students will have access to TTAB cases, including archives going back to 1993, and necessary practice forms and documents — from PTO applications to TTAB forms and client letters — familiarizing your students with the process of trademark prosecution.

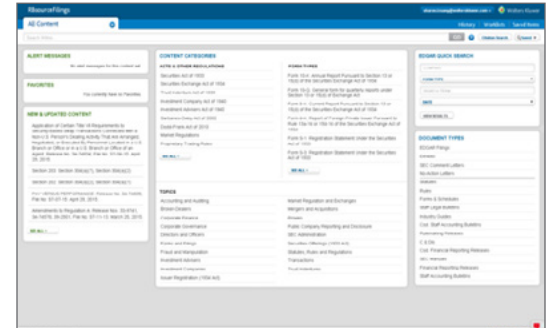

Health Law

Health Reform Knowledge Center— Student can access proprietary tools, insights, and fast, focused updates across all health reform-related topics. Included are Smart Charts with state-by-state comparisons of contraceptive coverage, health insurance exchanges, and our new Medicaid Expansion State Compare Chart, as well as white papers and special briefings.

Legal News

WK Daily Reporting Suite— A daily current awareness service written by our attorney editors, providing same-day coverage and analysis of breaking news, court decisions, legislation, and regulatory activity. The suite covers Antitrust, Banking and Finance, Employment, Health, Insurance, Intellectual Property, Products Liability and Securities Regulation. Students and professors will receive daily updates delivered directly to their inbox, keeping them abreast on topical legal developments that can be discussed in the classroom.
